

VICE President

→ According to Article 63 of the Indian constitution, There shall be one vice President in India.

→ The Vice-President is the ex-officio chairman of the Council.

→ The " " serves as the Acting President when the office of the President is vacant.

Qualification to become Vice-President:-
Article (66(3))

- Citizen of India
- must be 35 yrs of Age or older
- Should be eligible to become member of Rajya Sabha
- does not hold the post of Profit under the Govt.

Nomination:-

- 20 Proposers प्रस्तावक
- 20 seconders प्रत्यक्ष

→ They should be member of Parliament

- candidates will deposit ₹ 15000 as Bail Amount
- If they fail to get $\frac{1}{6}$ th vote their Bail amount will be forfeited

Election of vice-President:-

(CEC) Central Election Commission → President.

इन सबका election होता है }
{ CEC का साथ है

- Vice-President
- Lok Sabha
- Rajya Sabha
- Vidhan Sabha
- Vidhan Parishad.

- Elected by members of Lok Sabha

- The original constitution में 34 राजपति के लिए voting की प्रक्रिया नहीं थी.

OATH / Resign

- OATH By President

- If President Resigned → Vice President and vice versa.

Salary

₹ 4 लाख

- He gets a salary as the chairman of Rajya Sabha.
- The vice-president does not get a separate salary.

Powers / Functions

- 1) Chairman of Rajya Sabha.
- 2) casting vote when the vote is tied
- 3) maintain discipline.

Removal Article (67)

- 1) The motion is brought in the Rajya Sabha
- approval of Lok Sabha.
- 2) The approval of President is not required.

Important Facts related to Vice-President

- * First Vice President → Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan
- * Two times elected V.P. → Mohd. Hamid Ansari
- * V.V. Giri and R. Venkatarao were elected President before completing his term
- * Krishnakant was the Vice-President who died in his term office
- * V.P. Bhairon Singh Shekhawat resigned from his post before the tenure end.
- * Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, V.V. Giri, K.R. Narayan had served as Ambassador before becoming V.P.

~~*~~